

Blythe Gifford Booklist

In order of publication (North America)

THE KNAVE AND THE MAIDEN, January 2004
THE HARLOT'S DAUGHTER, October 2007*
INNOCENCE UNVEILED, June 2008
IN THE MASTER'S BED, September 2009*
HIS BORDER BRIDE, May 2010

*Linked by character.

The Brunson Clan Trilogy

RETURN OF THE BORDER WARRIOR, November 2012
CAPTIVE OF THE BORDER LORD, January 2013
TAKEN BY THE BORDER REBEL, March 2013

A free read related to the series, TEMPTED BY THE BORDER CAPTAIN, is available on the Harlequin Historical website:

<http://www.harlequin.com/articlepage.html?articleId=1795&chapter=1>

THE WITCH FINDER, October 2013

Royal Wedding Stories

SECRETS AT COURT, March 2014
WHISPERS AT COURT, June 2015
RUMORS AT COURT, May 2017

Fourteenth Century Books in chronological order (year story begins)

If you want a trip through the Fourteenth Century, you can read them in the order the stories actually take place. I've grouped them by the reign of the king, first King Edward III of England, then his successor and grandson, King Richard II. The Richard II stories feature characters inspired by the daughters of King Edward and his notorious mistress, Alice Perrers.

King Edward III appears in those marked ♦
INNOCENCE UNVEILED - 1327 ♦
HIS BORDER BRIDE - 1356 ♦
THE KNAVE AND THE MAIDEN - 1357
SECRETS AT COURT - 1361 ♦
WHISPERS AT COURT - 1363 ♦
RUMORS AT COURT - 1372 ♦

King Richard II appears in both
THE HARLOT'S DAUGHTER - 1386
IN THE MASTER'S BED - 1388

The Brunson Clan trilogy is set in Scotland during the reign of James II, early Sixteenth Century - 1528-29

THE WITCH FINDER is set in Scotland in the mid-Seventeenth Century - 1661-62